- E. You can put magnets on the fridge in the kitchen.
- F. Children play with toys.
- G. There are always two socks.
- H. A T-shirt can be in different sizes and have a picture on it.

3. Imagine you are a customer in a shop. Complete the sentence in three ways to say which souvenirs in ex. 2 you want to buy for three of the people in the box.

EXAMPLE: I'll take a T-shirt with a picture of a beach for my partner because he wears T-shirts in the summer.

I'll take a magnet for my sister because she has got magnets in the kitchen.

I'll take a mug for my colleague because she sometimes drinks coffee from my mug, and I need my mug.

your boss	your friend
your brother	your mum
your colleague	your partner
your dad	your sister
your daughter	your son

- I'll buy _____ for _____ because _____.

In a souvenir shop

4. Complete the sentences using the words in ex. 2 and your own ideas.

EXAMPLE: In souvenir shops in my country, they sell mugs and T-shirts with a picture of a beach.

- In souvenir shops in my country, they sell...
- When I travel, I never buy...
- For me, my friends and family often buy...
- My favourite souvenirs are...

5. Watch a video [<https://www.youtube.com/shorts/-3yUWogQiOA>] about a souvenir shop in NYC and answer the questions.

- Does the woman think the souvenir shop is the best in NYC?
- How much are the magnets and keychains?
- What text is on the yellow toy?

6. Discuss the questions.

- Do you like the souvenirs in the video?
- What would you like to buy in NYC for your friends and family?
- How much are souvenirs in your country? Give some examples.

7. Listen to a recording [<https://youtu.be/8jj8hv7AcPw>] in which two people talk in a souvenir shop and complete the gaps with the prices you hear.
